Drawings

The drawings are objected to because the text in box 5 of fig. 2 needs editing (suggest that text fits within box). Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Figure 1 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated (as noted in background in ¶ bridging pages 1 and 2). See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: because fig. 1 requires a "Prior Art" label, the brief description of fig. 1 under "BRIEF DESCRIPTION..." on page 3 needs to be amended to reflect such. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1 – 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 1, "the vehicle" (line 5) lacks antecedent basis (suggest amending the preamble to read - A position detector device for a vehicle- -); "the invalid data" (line 8) also lacks antecedent basis. Claims 2 – 5 are necessarily rejected.

Art Unit: 3661

Regarding claim 6, "the moving vehicle" (line 1) lacks antecedent basis. A 'moving vehicle' has not previously been identified. (suggest replacing "the" [first occurrence] with - -a- -). Claim 7 is necessarily rejected.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 1 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 6826478 B2 to Riewe et al. ("Riewe").

Regarding claims 1, 6, and 7, Riewe teaches a vehicle position detector device (10) and method (figs. 4, 5, 8), comprises: a GPS module (30) for receiving and processing a GPS satellite signal, used to receive the satellite position information; two groups of velocity sensitive elements (22 and 24), for sensing the moving velocity of the left and right side wheels or other moving mechanism of the vehicle; a calculation unit (within AINS 10), for calculating the vehicle moving velocity, direction and position coordinate, comparing the GPS position information with the calculation results, eliminating (filtering) the invalid data (by way of item 16), and providing the correct and effective vehicle position information and calculating the azimuth angle variation (fig. 4; note col. 6, lines 58 – 65); a communication interface (18), for transmitting the vehicle position information processed by the calculation unit to the position information display device (not explicitly shown) or the vehicle navigation system (overall, col. 5, lines 50 – 65 and col. 8, lines 17 – 40 at least).

Regarding claims 3 and 5, Riewe further teaches at least one group in the said two groups of velocity sensitive elements comprises two sensitive elements for judging the wheel turning (based on wheel angle data 38) direction (col. 6, lines 8 – 23; col. 7, lines 23 – 38; col. 11, lines 29 – 43; col. 8, line 61 – col. 9, line 9).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Riewe ('478).

As discussed above, Riewe teaches all of the limitations except for the inductive aspect of the sensitive elements. However, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention sensitive elements that are inductive are known (see for example U.S. Patent No. 6318176 to McKenzie et al.)
